

tiffany grossman & dan brewer

May 9, 2009

Coordinated by Southern Event Planners

Q: How did he propose?

We were living in Eastern Pennsylvania at the time, and went into New York City for the day. We spent a wonderful day in the city, and he proposed right above all of the ice skaters in Rockefeller Center.

Q: What was the most important thing to you about your wedding?

For us, the wedding was of course about getting married, but about celebrating that with our family and friends. What we kept in mind the whole time was that we wanted the reception to be a big party where our family and friends could have a wonderful time eating, drinking, and dancing.

Q: Why did you choose your wedding planner?

I knew right away that Angela and her team from Southern Event Planners were best in class. I did not interview any other planners- when she told me that her background was in finance, I knew we were a match made in heaven. Not only was she cost conscious when she could be, and kept my budget in mind, but never let that get in the way of creating an absolutely perfect wedding. It was so beautiful in every way, and she understood what I wanted out of the wedding. Everyone at Southern Event Planners worked so hard to give our wedding personal attention, right down to details like the Magnolia bloom on my cake and the quilt squares that they cut for me the day before my wedding.

Q: Did you do any DIY projects?

Our programs were DIY, and our Out of Town bags. We had quite a few out of town guests, so we wanted to make sure they took a little bit of Tennessee and Memphis with them. The bags had Elvis trinkets, Memphis Flyers, Moon Pies, airline bottles of Jack Daniels, Rendezvous dry rub, and water bottles.

Wedding Planner Southern Event Planners

Photographer Studio J Photography • Caterer A Moveable Feast • Florist L & Jay Productions • Cake Peggy Montgomery • Bridal Shop Southern Bride • Ceremony location Cathedral of Immaculate Conception Reception location Memphis Water Works • Reception Music Dan Eubanks • Rentals Unique Event Rentals